EU Strategy for Sustainable and Circular Textiles

3 “drivers” for this EU Strategy

1. Focus on sustainability

2. Industrial resilience

3. A new global perspective

The EU's vision...

The Commission's 2030 Vision for Textiles

All textile products placed on the EU market are:

- durable, repairable and recyclable
- to a great extent made of recycled fibres
- free of hazardous substances
- produced respecting social rights

"Fast fashion is out of fashion" – consumers benefit longer from high quality textiles

Profitable re-use and repair services are widely available

In a competitive, resilient and innovative textile sector producers take responsibility for their products along the value chain

Circular rather than throw-away clothes have become the norm, with sufficient capacities for recycling and minimal incineration and landfilling

On the 10th of July 2022, 5 textile companies from Ukraine have been hosted to the Torino Fashion Week 2022 event (6th July - 14th July) , an international, independent, innovative and inclusive event of fashion shows organized every year in Turin (Italy) addressed to emerging fashion designers, innovative brands , small and medium companies

Fashion Dresses Peace, this was the main theme of the 2022 edition of the event that had the honour of hosting a delegation of fashion brands from Ukraine that had a wonderful performance with their collections at the luxury location of Villa Sassi, in Turin.

During their performance the Ukrainian brands presented power on the way to victory. Designers showed conceptual modern clothes with the elements of Ukrainian national symbols. Ukrainian designers prepare the special evening show called From the War to Prosperity.

The Ukrainian companies provided an audience with the story of the beginning of the war with all horror from the side of the people and described a bright future for the country.

The focus of the show will be the pictures of the Ukrainian Children that shows all aggression, pain and loss of Ukrainian families.

Thanks to the EEN Italian partners from Turin Unioncamere Piemonte and EEN-Ukraine consortium , Ukrainian designers will have the opportunity to present their better products and model uniting military, casual and sportswear clothes in a one fashion show.
